Muggli or Muckli. Families of Trimms and Ems (Graubünden)William of Trimms as representative of the League of the Gotteshausbund put the seal on the first Peace of Kappel in June, 1529. In this peace the Hungarian alliance was annulled and the principle of "religious parity"(or freedom) was admitted in the case of each member of the League. He had a crossbow in his coat of arms. Stephan of Ems was a chief magistrate (Podesta) at Tirano in 1607; and another Stephan was judge of the appellate court of Graubünden in 1665.

From the Episcopal Archives of Chur.

Mr. Augustin Maisson in his studies of Swiss American families reports that there are no Mugglis now living in the original valley.

Muckli Coat of Arms

Previous to about 1800, Graubünden was an independent country, a democracy, and elected its president each year. In 1665, Steven Muckli was elected to the presidency for that country and for the excellent service which he rendered was knighted, and his coat of arms is frescoed upon the walls of an old Benedictine abbey at Trans, Switzerland. Steven Muckli was born at Emo near Chur and during the Swiss reformation with his family moved west to Trans, his family being the only branch of the Muckly family that remained in the Roman Catholic Church. From the stories that are told, Steven Muckli was a man of great power and intelligence. According to all historical stories, he was and his memory still is held in high esteem by the people of Graubünden. You being a descendant of the John Muggli are a direct descendant of this historical man and therefore entitled to claim this family crest. Early in the 1800s Graubünden joined the Swiss Federation and is now the largest of its cantons. I send you this as a remembrance of my trip to Europe. This is an exact copy of the fresco and it comes to you with greetings from Trans and Tuerus, the cradle of our family history.

Mary Margaret Muckly

MUCKLI (MUGGLI) COAT OF ARMS

The copy of the coat of arms on the front cover was produced by projecting a colored slide of Rev. Kreutz' conception of what the coat of arms should be like (Zeno Muggli has the original of this) onto a multilith mat and thus copying it. Some of the color lines were added later on.

Rev. Robert W. Kreutz, S.P., a graduate in genealogy and heraldry at the Technical University in Aachen contributed some of the following notes on the Muggli Coat of Arms in November, 1959. They were given along with the copy of the Coat of Arms to Zeno Muggli. Several points in the letter written to Sister Amanda and the fact that the Coat of Arms was taken from a fresco prompted him to make the changes.

The Shield of the Mugglis is a divided one. The upper two thirds in a red field shows a golden cross-bow; and two arrows in silver at the right and left of the cross-bow. The lower part in a silver field indicates a triple mountain in green supporting a red heart.
The Helmet in a natural (iron) color is crowned with a coronet in gold with three points (Aristocracy!)
The Crest is a double eagle wing alternating colors in gold and red, silver and green. Between these wings is a green mountain with a green fir tree.
The Mantel is in alternating red-gold and green silver.

The Cross-bow shows that the Mugglis have been great fighters for their democratic country and for its independence. The green mountains with the red heart on top indicates their love for their mountainous country.

The Crown with its three points is an aristocratic coronet on top of an open helmet of the 15th century. The Crest repeats the green mountain with a fir tree, which is also in the officially adopted shield of the canton of Graubünden.
The two Eagle Wings are a very old heraldic design, worn in most European countries during these centuries.

Stephan Muckli was "Knighted." What meaning should be attached to this? Graubünden (Chur diocese) always was a democracy and a fully independent state until in 1803 it was added to the Federal States of Switzerland as a Swiss canton under Napoleon the Great. One can, however, only be "knighted" by a Kaiser, a King or Queen, or a Grand Duke! The fact that he was elected by the people of Graubünden as a President proves the impossibility of a "knighting." If he or his independent state had been accidentally under Austria, France, or Italy, his name would have been: Baron von Muckli, or, Baron de Muckli, or Barone di Muckli! depending on the country. All Mugglis would then be von, de, or di Muggli. But Swiss history shows that those of the nobility are few in Switzerland, and they are the ones who have been under Germany or Austria. Only a few cantons had been under France or Italy before the Swiss Federation. Graubünden is one of the very few cantons of the old Roman Raetia Republic and its people as well as those of the Canton Tessin speak Raetic. This is the only Roman language in the world which is still spoken as the old Romans did. It is very close to Latin, but not a Latin language as such. It is Raetic (Raeia) There are four languages spoken in Switzerland--- German for three fourths of the country, French, Italian and Raetic.

The Muggli origin is from the Raetic part of Switzerland. Muggli is a so-called Germanized word. While there is no strict nobility in the family it must have been aristocratic in order to be elected as President in 1665 because at this time only aristocrats could have become Presidents (or Bishops or Abbots for that matter) And under their kings or emperors only aristocrats could have become members of the nobility. Therefore since Stephan Muckli has his coat of arms as an aristocratic member of Graubünden, and since he was elected President, he was for his country certainly as much as any of the nobility in a country under a king or any monarch.

The diocese of Graubünden is Chur. The great Swiss Saint, canonized a few years ago, Nicholaus von der Flue, was of Austrian-Swiss nobility. The canton Graubünden is about 60 per cent Protestant (Calvinistic) and the great majority of the population are of Raetic descent and speak Raetic. The official language in Switzerland-government, parliament and schools-is German.

In all the schools the children must learn French even in the grade schools because some of the cantons are entirely French, as are Fribourg, Geneva and Lausanne. Switzerland is the purest democratic country in the world and the United States are set up according to the model of the Swiss cantons.

The population of the Canton Graubünden is about 80 per cent agricultural. The scenery of this canton is the most beautiful with its high mountains, hills and green valleys with their rivers and creeks.

CAVORGIA---SEDRUN
GRAUBUNDEN
SWITZERLAND

The following dates of births were taken from the baptismal records at Sedrun by Father Vigeli Berther, O.S.B. of Disentis and copied in October, 1967 by Benjamin J. Stein, O.S.B.

At Sedrun we visited with Mr. Maurus Berther (age 88) who told us that he remembers seeing a votive plate in the old church in Cavorgia requested by the Mugglis in America.

From the year 1851 to 1872 there is on record the emigration of 35 Mugglis from the Badus (mountain) area. None by the name of Muggli there in 1967.

December, 1967

Merry Christmas again. You have already received my Christmas letter some time in Sept. but here are some of the fruits of the trip which ended at St. Bernard's Abbey, St. Bernard, Alabama, 35138 and not at Sant' Anselmo. I hope that Sant' Anselmo has more seriously tackled its library problem by now and that the students will be adequately taken care of for their studies.

St. Bernard's is in the South and I am not looking forward to a white Christmas. It is interesting here and there is plenty of work though if fishing is considered as play there is also enough of that. It would be interesting if more fish were hungry for what we have been offering them.

The library work is varied and will continue to occupy me until Easter when I hope to come to Minnesota for Holy Week and then for a week at the Catholic Library Association which will meet at the Hilton hotel, St. Paul during the following Easter week. My return to St. John's and the library is scheduled for June, 1968.

St. Bernard's College has around 800 students and is close to Sacred Heart (Junior) College conducted by the Sisters of St. Benedict. There is some cooperation and exchange of students though perhaps more will and should be done. St. John's and St. Ben's seem to be more advanced in this.

Thanks to all again for help on my wonderful European trip and the record of this is in the letters mostly collected by Julia.

Love,

HAPPY NEW YEAR
